

“Finally Free!”

Have you ever been locked up, or locked in? How did it feel when you got freedom?

Read Galatians 5:1-15.

1. What action groups best describe your views on freedom?
  - A. Black Lives Matter.
  - B. Pathfinder Club.
  - C. Adventist Community Services.
  - D. Doctors Without Borders.
  - E. Catholic Social Services.
  - F. Habitat for Humanity.
  - G. The Red Cross.
  - H. Polaris Project (an anti-human/anti-sex trafficking non-profit).
  - I. Other.

2. What is Paul’s main argument concern in Galatians 5:1-3?
  - A. People need to be free from all laws.
  - B. There is a “must” that all men are circumcised.
  - C. If you are circumcised, you must obey every law to the letter.
  - D. You do not need circumcision to be saved.
  - E. Stand up, and don’t be in bondage anymore.
  - F. Freedom is doing whatever feels good.
  - G. If you love Christ, you are free.
  - H. Have fun and don’t worry about the law!
  - I. Other.

3. What is the right mixture of law and grace?
  - A. Excusing evil while hanging on to good.
  - B. Loving good and letting go of evil.
  - C. Seeing God’s law through the eyes of grace.
  - D. Because I have grace, I don’t need any laws.
  - E. The law makes grace effective.
  - F. There is no need for grace; if you break God’s laws, you pay.
  - G. I don’t care about law or grace.
  - H. Because I have God’s grace, I’m motivated to keep His laws.
  - I. Other

4. What is the essence of Paul's words in Galatians 5:6?
- A. Circumcision be banned!
  - B. Love trumps all.
  - C. One can be circumcised to be saved.
  - D. Getting circumcised is very exciting.
  - E. Circumcision is not even valuable anymore.
  - F. To love your family is good but loving outside family is tabooed.
  - G. Give legalism an opportunity to thrive.
  - H. Faith can only be expressed through love.
  - I. Other.
5. In verse 10, is Paul suggesting that evil people are leading the church?
- A. They are his words exactly.
  - B. He takes great care not to say that.
  - C. Paul is indecisive concerning church leaders.
  - D. Paul says clearly that they will pay a price for creating confusion.
  - E. The leaders were perfect people; therefore, no need to worry.
  - F. Leaders are always creating havoc in the church anyway.
  - G. Paul is saying that we should be wary of those who cause confusion.
  - H. Other.
6. What is the essence of Paul's thoughts in (vs. 13-15)?
- A. Use your freedom responsibly.
  - B. Freedom also means freedom from responsibility.
  - C. When one is truly free, the flesh is not served.
  - D. Freedom leads to serving others.
  - E. Freedom means one is free even not to be humble.
  - F. Freedom has no limits.
  - G. If you exercise freedom without limits destruction is the result.
  - H. Every person is called to be free.
  - I. Other.
7. In what ways do you need to be free?
8. How do you treat those who are law junkies?