

“NAME CHANGE”

What is the biggest change you have experienced in your life so far?

Read Genesis 17:1-16.

Read Genesis 18:1-33.

1. What is God’s covenant with Abram?
 - a. He will be the father of many nations.
 - b. He will father a son.
 - c. He will have a change in name.
 - d. He will get to go back home.
 - e. The Savior will be part of his lineage.
 - f. His descendants will be kings.
 - g. Abram will be king of the land he inhabits.
 - h. Other.

2. What does God ask of Abram to make a covenant with Him?
 - a. To serve Him faithfully.
 - b. To conquer the land.
 - c. To have a son.
 - d. To have faith.
 - e. To live a blameless life.
 - f. To put it in God’s hands.
 - g. To circumcise himself.
 - h. Other.

3. What is the significance of Sarai’s new name?
 - a. It means the same thing (Sarah and Sarai).
 - b. It reflects the change in culture.
 - c. It reflects the change in language.
 - d. It reflects new beginnings.
 - e. It reflects her role as a matriarch.
 - f. It is foreshadowing to her son’s miraculous birth.
 - g. It reflects the beginning of a new nation.
 - h. Other.

4. What possession is given to Abram as part of the covenant?
 - a. The land of Canaan.
 - b. Milk and honey.
 - c. A child.
 - d. A bunch of descendants.
 - e. Everlasting ownership over the Promised Land.
 - f. A new identity.
 - g. The promise that God will always be his God.
 - h. Other.

5. What do Abram and his descendants have to do to hold up their side of the covenant?
 - a. Circumcise themselves.
 - b. Put a mark on their head.
 - c. Circumcise every male in their household.
 - d. Circumcise on the 8th day after birth.
 - e. Circumcise immediately after birth.
 - f. Circumcise the first-born son.
 - g. Bear the everlasting mark of the covenant.
 - h. Other.

6. Why does Abraham ask God to bless Ishmael?
 - a. He believes he can't have another child.
 - b. He believes he already fulfilled the covenant.
 - c. He believes Ishmael deserves the right of the first born.
 - d. He believes Ishmael is the child God is referring to.
 - e. He cannot understand how he will have another child at his age.
 - f. He believes Islam is part of the covenant God is building.
 - g. He does not have enough faith.
 - h. Other.

7. What was truly the main component of this covenant?

8. How can you make such a covenant with God today?